Newsletter – March 2009

Website: <http://morwellnp.pangaean.net>

A0016319X

G'day everyone and welcome to the latest non-issue of your newsletter. I say non-issue because I really have nothing substantial to tell you. There are rumours around that the pines on Jumbuk road have been logged and removed, but other than that, I know nothing, nothing, nothing. I could rabbit on about all the work Cathy and I have taken on chasing injured wildlife around the district, from Mirboo North to Woodside (they won't let us in the Prom yet) or I could fill up the space with photos of fire grounds and the odd cute furry and scaly critters we have come in contact with, but really, it's a Morwell NP newsletter, not a Mike & Cathy expose! So you're getting nothing!

(The truth is I have just run out of time this month to write anything more)

March Activity

On the calendar this month is a track maintenance exercise. We will meet at Kerry Road on Sunday, March 15, at 10am, to work out how we will get to Muttonwood Creek to do some tidying up work on the track. The next episode in our Weed War series will have to wait for next month and for future gaps in our program. Come armed with lunch and refreshments, clothing and footwear suitable for the conditions on the day.
